MAN IS SAVED FROM DEATH BY FIRST AID

Deep Gashes Incurred By Gus Ford As Car Leaves Highway

Application of practical knowledge of first aid learned by Gene Plecq as a volunteer fireman was credited Tuesday with saving the life of Gus Ford, 38-year-old WPA worker whose home is at 1227 Katherine street.

Returning home from work Monday afternoon, Ford failed to negotiate a turn on Lake View Way, Emerald Lake, near Jefferson avenue, and his light car left the road, rolling down a 20-foot sloping bank, turning over three times.

Ford suffered a bad gash on the wrist from which blood was spurting when he was seen by Plecq and Isadore Ibarra and Curtis Raehr, fellow Redwood City water department employes, who were working on a nearby hill.

They rushed to where Ford had extricated himself from the badly damaged machine, sized up the situation, and under Plecq's direction applied a tourniquet to Ford's arm to stem the rapid flow which in a few minutes might have allowed the injured man to bleed to death.

They then cleared the city truck of pipe and brought the injured man to a local doctor where he was given first aid treatment before being removed to Community Hospital. At the hospital today he was reported as being able to sit up and was well on the road to recovery, although suffering from painful bruises.

Traffic has been opened on the new railway bridge over the river Irtysh, near Omsk (Western Siberia).

COLMAN AND NEW LEADING LADY

DEATH CAUSE OF BOY SOUGHT FROM ANALYSIS

Daly City 7-Year-Old Is Believed Victim Of Poisoning

(Special to The Tribune)

DALY CITY, Dec. 23.—Reports of a San Francisco analysis of the contents of the stomach of 7-year-old Frederick Roland Daniels, who died under mysterious circumstances late Saturday night, was being awaited by authorities today before taking any action in the case.

The child, step-son of Elmer Daniels and son of Mrs. Daniels, was found dead by his mother at 2:30 a. m. Sunday when she returned from an absence of four hours.

The boy had eaten candy distributed at a Christmas party, and a bar of candy purchased in company with a companion, Billy Kling. Neither the Kling boy nor any other children who had eaten candy from the party suffered any ill effects.

LEFT ALONE IN HOUSE

After the party, the Daniels and Kling boys went to a movie, then to the Kling home, where the Daniels boy complained of pain in his stomach and legs. He was put to bed there a while and taken home at 5 o'clock.

At 10:30 his mother, Mrs. Grace Daniels, left the house to take lunch to her husband, who works the night shift in a service station.

She stayed there until 2. Upon her return home she found the boy lying dead, face down in his bed. Physicians said he undoubtedly died in convulsions.

APPEARED IMPROVED

Mrs. Daniels, grief-stricken, told Coroner William Crosby that when she left to take lunch to her husband, the boy appeared to be much better and apparently was sleeping. The boy once previously had been under treatment for a stomach disorder.

An autopsy led physicians to express opinion the boy had died of poison. The stomach was forwarded to the San Francisco coroner for anayisis of the contents by Prof. J. B. Swim.

Four Men Arrested For Picking Berries

Close watch by San Mateo county officers for pickers of shrubbery and toyon berries resulted Sunday in arrest of four men charged with the offense.

Harry Ames, 40-year-old San Francisco elevator operator, was released on $25 bail after his arrest by State Highway Patrolman Walter Sequeira on the Skyline boulebard near Millbrae.

Three men were cited by Capt. Paul Perussina. They was John Stieburger, 42; Robert J. Bolger, 18, and Danti Bani, 17, all of San Francisco.

Captain Perussina declared war on the unpermitted picking of the berries, which is in violation of section 384 of the penal code.

New Decia Baby Has Many Grandparents

If Barbara Lee Decia's grandparents and great grandparents are as generous to her as such persons usually are, Christmas in the Palo Alto Hospital should be a happy day for this young "lady."

She was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Al Decia of 1324 El Camino Real; and Mr. and Mrs. G. Casaretto, great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Delucchi, maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Decia of San Francisco, grandparents, and another great-grandmother far away in Italy are all very happy over the new arrival in the family.

Mrs. Decia was the former Virginia Delucchi. She was graduated from Sequoia with the class of 1928.

Duel Following Party May End In Man's Death

Jose Farrazota, 42, South San Francisco Mexican laborer, lay at the point of death in the Community Hospital at San Mateo Monday, and Pedro DeTovar, 38, his neighbor, was in the county jail at Redwood City charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

Farrazota, police said, had his right lung punctured by a knife stab which DeTovar claims he delivered in self defense in an argument in the Mexican colony at South San Francisco.

DeTovar told Chief of Police Louis Belloni of South San Francisco that Farrazota had attacked him with a club and that he had been forced to defend himself with his knife. This, too, was the story DeTovar told Deputy District Attorney Louis B. Dematteis, who questioned the accused man this morning.

Dematteis said reports from the hospital were that Farrazota was not expected to recover. Should he die, the charge against DeTovar would be for murder.

DeTovar told the deputy district attorney the fight occurred at 11 a. m. Sunday when Farrazota accused DeTovar of keeping him awake by a noisy party Saturday night. The argument ended in the possibly fatal duel.

Ordinance Prepared To Bar Fireworks

(Special to The Tribune)

SAN MATEO, Dec. 25.—It may be Christmas season but five county and Burlingame and San Mateo city officials had their minds on July Fourth yesterday.

They were meeting in the office of San Mateo City Manager E. P. Wilsey to draw up a uniform city ordinance for prohibition of the use of fireworks in San Mateo county.

Burlingame City Attorney John F. Davis was instructed to draw up such an ordinance which will be presented to city councils in the county.

Present were Bert Werder, county fire warden; Hugh Morris, San Mateo fire chief; San Mateo Mayor Frank Simmen; Wilsey and Davis.

PENINSULA CIVIC HEADS MAP NAVY BASE BATTLE

away from Alameda, civic leaders of San Mateo, Burlingame and other peninsula cities met in the Confident that San Mateo county has definite hopes of securing the projected navy seaplane base San Mateo City Hall on Tuesday and mapped the first steps of an active campaign. The group selected Mayor Frank Simmen of San Mateo as permanent chairman and Mayor C. A. Buck of Burlingame as vice-chairman. Gilbert Keitle, manager of the San Mateo Chamber of Commerce, was named secretary.

Mayor Simmen was authorized to name a committee of 12 to handle ways and means of financing the presentation in Washington of the fight in behalf of the west side of San Francisco Bay. This committee, under suggestion of Percy Shaw and S. A. Keyston, will be made up of eight San Mateo county men, three San Franciscans and one Palo Aitan.

Mayor Charles Lambert of Redwood City discouraged the naming of mayors as a committee, saying persons more familiar with navy questions should be selected.

MAP WASHINGTON FIGHT

It was agreed that a navy expert would be required to present the San Mateo county case in Washington. Names of Capt. Edward Macauley, retired naval officer of Hillsborough and a close personal friend of President Roosevelt, and Dr. Howard McKinley San Francisco, were two mentioned to assist the peninsula campaign.

Macauley, if plans materialize and he can accept, would be sent to Washington, D. C., to assist Congressman McGrath in behalf of the project.

First thought of the peninsula civic leaders present was to win the base away from Alameda, and secondly, to have it located at whichever of the three peninsula sites the navy experts finally decided upon.

Sites being considered, according to Congressman John J. McGrath, are Point San Mateo (Coyote Point), which McGrath reported was the leading contender, and Bair Island and Belle Air Island.

DENIES POLITICAL BLAST

McGrath, in answering B. Ray Fritz, city manager of Alameda, that the Coyote Point story was a "political blast" and a "lot of hooey," pointed to Rear Admiral Ernest J. King's statement as confirmation that Coyote Point was "being examined." King is chief of the navy bureau of aeronautics.

Representative McGrath said it was natural for Fritz to attempt to discredit the Coyote Point site, if he could, because of the desire to retain the base for Alameda.

SEVEN PAY PARKING FINES

Fines of $1 each for illegal parking on Redwood City streets were paid last week in Justice Edward I. McAuliffe's court by Clarence Aldor, Helen Matheson, Floyd Hatley, Hall Reeves, D. L. Devencenzi, Jack MacDonald and George Corsi.

SUBDIVISION LAW ORDERED FOR COUNTY

Supervisors Approve Sewer Districts In Two Areas

Besides giving tentative approval of two sewer maintenance districts, the board of supervisors in a session Monday afternoon ordered a subdivision regulatory ordinance drawn, decided to ask San Francisco's aid in securing more traffic patrolmen, and voiced approval of the campaign to secure a navy base for the peninsula.

On motions of Supervisor Albert Witt Jr., Colma, and seconds of Supervisor Walter High, Burlingame, the Brisbane and Montara sewer districts, organized so WPA funds could be sought in their development, were tentatively approved, with final approval postponed until next Monday.

Three protests to the Montara district were considered. Dr. Edmund Walter said he believed the coastside plan was impractical; 11 residents petitioned that the area west of the Ocean Shore right-of-way be excluded, and 34 signatures were affixed to a petition protesting the district's formation on the grounds that (1) subsequent taxes would be unbearable; (2) the "confiscatory" taxes would retard development; (3) cost of replacing the 25-year-old system built when property value was high will be out of proportion to benefit; (4) most of the homes use "sanitary and efficient" private septic tanks, a "logical and practical" method of disposal in that district.

Yule Paroles Free Two in County Jail

Christmas paroles late Tuesday released two inmates of the county jail. As a result, only 15 men were "enjoying" the customary pork dinner this Christmas day.

Those released were Fred Johnson, 30-year-old Oakland salesman-aviator, and Edward Gray, 56, of San Francisco.

Johnson was sentenced to 30 days December 5 by Justice Edward I. McAuliffe after he had pleaded guilty to drunken driving. He had been arrested by state patrolmen near Redwood City while driving 85 miles an hour.

Gray had been sentenced August 3 by Superior Judge A. R. Cotton to spend a year in the jail after he had pleaded guilty to attacking a 6-year-old Brisbane girl.

Two Local Men Hurt in Head-On San Mateo Crash

(Special to The Tribune)

SAN MATEO, Dec. 24. — One Redwood City man was seriously and another painfully injured when their cars crashed headon at 6:47 a. m. today on the Bayshore highway near Fifth avenue, San Mateo.

The injured men were James Gennaro, 2899 El Camino Real, and Charles L. Wright, 1133 Cleveland street. Both were treated at Community Hospital.

Wright was reported to have a severe laceration over the right eye and a serious leg injury. Gennaro, who was able to return to his home late this afternoon, had chest injuries and a possible nose fracture.

Witnesses told police that Wright was driving in the fourth lane. He had been drinking, doctors said, but was in too serious a condition to be given a sobriety test.

San Mateo police expected Gennaro to sign a complaint today for Wright's arrest.

The impact of the machines was terrific, both cars being demolished, according to a local garage.

Demands Made To Rush Work At Mills Port

At a conference attended by state relief administration officials, San Francisco Utilities Manager Edward G. Cahill last week made demands which he said were necessary to be fulfilled if work on Mills Field is to be completed within a year.

He asked immediate allocation of the entire $1,676,000 federal grant of which $559,000 has now been received; construction of buildings at the base by contract; raising of the permitted ratio between labor and material expenditures to 50-50, and allocation of money for engineering and architectural work.

Cahill also submitted a demand for $1,738,000 for work on other portions of the airport which he claimed was deleted from the city's original request for $3,414,000 for airport purposes.

Attending the conference were George Creel, Frank Y. McLaughlin, state WPA administrator, and Ralph G. Wadsworth, assistant state WPA administrator.

CO-OPERATIVE OF ARTICHOKE GROWERS SEEN

Lift of New York Ban Promised If Agents Chosen By Raisers

When Mayor Fiorello H. LaGardia of New York learns what consignees in his city San Mateo county and other California artichoke growers have confidence in, he will lift his embargo on sale of the vegetable, he said in a telegram today to John E. Pickett of San Francisco, editor of the Pacific Rural Press, according to United Press dispatches from New York.

The mayor's telegram was in answer to a message from Pickett applauding his stand and characterizing the artichoke racket as "one of the most un-democratic, coercive and sinister things in the United States."

The mayor, who banned the sale of artichokes in New York City markets because of racketeers' domination, expressed willingness to support a grower's co-operative which Prickett said had long been blocked by "selfish, greedy, coercive and toll-taking interests."

COERCION FEARED HERE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24 (UP)—John E. Pickett, editor of the Pacific Rural Press, said today that unless coercive elements in the artichoke industry were removed by prosecution and imprisonment, growers of San Mateo, Santa Clara, Monterey and San Francisco counties would be afraid to ship to independent dealers in order to lift a New York embargo.

Harry Colford, Cement Plant Employe, Dies

Stricken with a heart attack as he prepared to go to work at the plant of the Pacific Portland Cement Company, where he was a time keeper, Harry Newton Colford, 64, died suddenly shortly after 7 a.m. Tuesday at his home at 1437 Jefferson avenue.

Mr. Colford, who had lived here for the past seven and a half years, had arisen as usual at 6:30 o'clock. Although he had not been in the best of health, he had been working daily. Shortly after arising Tuesday, however, he became sick, and passed away within the hour.

He had been with the cement company since 1918, joining the firm at Cement, Solano county.

Mr. Colford was a native of New York City, where he was born at No. 2 Barnes street, which since has become the center of the financial district. He was a member of the Druids lodge.

Left to mourn his unexpected passing are his wife, Anna, and a step-son, Stanley Read of Vallejo.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a. m. from the Layng & Tinney Funeral Home. Interment will follow at Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

Control of automobile parking on state highways through small cities and towns in California lies with the state motor vehicle department.

LOCAL HOTEL IS PURCHASED SECOND TIME

Harry Ananos Acquires Property of Doyle In Local Deal

For the second time in 1935, the Sequoia Hotel was in the hands of a new proprietor today.

Announcement was made on Tuesday that John J. Doyle, former Menlo Park hotel owner, had sold the hotel to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ananos, Oakland apartment house owners.

The real estate deal was handled through the local firm of H. F. Becher Company.

Manager of the hotel will be Mrs. Lillie Burke, sister of Mrs. Ananos, while Jack Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Ananos' son, will be in charge of the hotel grill and buffet.

Doyle said he would rest for several months before deciding what business he would take up. He bought the hotel from August Fromm May 1.

County Gets Part Of Junipero Serra

Although Junipero Serra road, in the north end of the county, has again been assumed by Joint Highway District No. 10 after being tossed back and forth between the state and San Mateo county, this county must maintain one small section of the road, according to a letter received by the board of supervisors Monday from Mary R. Schwab, secretary of the highway district.

Coastside Union Calls on State For Road Funds

Joining protests piling up on desks of the state highway commission to that body's apparent reneging of promises to construct the Ocean Shore highway out of surplus gasoline tax funds was one Monday from the Coastside Civic Union.

At a meeting last week, the union passed a resolution protesting "this apparent 'chiseling' from San Mateo county funds," and demanding "of those in authority that promises made now be fulfilled and funds allocated for immediate construction of the Pedro sector of the Coast Highway."

The resolution declared the Waldo bridge approach project, which is expected to take most of the state's surplus tax funds, "already is said to have been liberally provided for in the budget" of the highway commission, and called members' attention again to the "many promises of state support" given San Mateo county for the coast road.

Shaw Estate Goes To Maintain Ranch

So that the Belvoir ranch on the coastside might be kept intact as it has been for several generations in the family of Edgar A. Shaw, he left his nephew, John E. Shaw Jr., the bulk of his estate when he died at the age of 65 on December 12, it was disclosed Monday as his will was filed for probate. All the estate, valued at in excess of $10,000, was left to relatives, including two brothers and two sisters.

$4000 HOUSE PLANNED

Construction of a $4,000 five-room frame house at 134 King street for Mrs. E. E. Thompson by Contractor Emil Steinegger was disclosed yesterday when a building permit for the dwelling was issued.

Artichoke Ban To Be Enforced By Licensing

'We Will Starve Out Racketeers,' Warns Mayor LaGuardia

The ban in New York on artichokes, principal crop of the San Mateo county coastside, which raises the bulk of the artichokes used in the United States, may be enforced by pressure on dealers requiring licenses and market stall leases, Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia indicated Monday, according to United Press dispatches from New York.

The prohibition of small artichokes, which the roly-poly mayor proclaimed from the tail board of a truck in the Bronx market at 6 a. m. Saturday, becomes effective Thursday.

"We'll starve the racketeers out of this business if it takes all summer," LaGuardia said. "When they're gone we'll eat artichokes again."

BLOW AT RACKETEERS

The artichoke ban, more important to local growers than to the New York Italian districts which consume most of their products, is a blow at racketeers said to have cornered the market through strong arm methods that drove all but a few retailers from the business.

City market authorities said one jobber, the Union Produce Company, takes all imports of artichokes and retailers who attempt to buy elsewhere suffer mysterious damage to stocks and stores.

ARRESTS MAY FOLLOW

Police and market authorities believed they could enforce the mayor's orders without resort to prosecution, although they indicated they would invoke the courts if necessary. Court action would be based on the mayor's charter power to "suppress disorder and quell riots."

283 Now Working On WPA Projects Get Yule Checks

A total of 283 men were working today on six WPA projects in San Mateo county, Engineer U. S. Marshall reported.

The largest number—152—is employed on the San Francisquito creek levee job, while the Woodside road culvert project employs 49, the Memorial Park septic tank project, 35, the Jefferson avenue widening, 31, and the Miramar beach parking area, 16.

The "B" unit of the Woodside culvert project has been resumed after a temporary shutdown due to exhaustion of funds. Permission was given to transfer funds from the "C" unit to allow the other unit to be completed. But now no more work on the project will be done until January 6 because of the number of "man hours" having been used for this month, Marshall explained.

TWO HOMES PLANNED

Immediate construction of two five-room frame houses at a cost of $200 each was revealed Monday with issuance of building permits at the city hall. L. C. Rowan is building one of the homes at 202 Harrison avenue. E. D. Baird is builder of the other at 1020 Cleveland.

JEFFERSON UNIT HAS YULE FETE

Poems Mark Program Put On at School By Lucretia Hall

As Yule vacation was being enjoyed Tuesday, Redwood City's children turned from thoughts of Christmas plays produced in local schools last week to preparations for "the real thing."

Last of the school festivals to be reported was that produced at Jefferson Thursday afternoon under the direction of Lucretia Hall of the faculty.

The program included opening speech of welcome by Jacklyn Palm; songs by the sixth grade glee club, "Christmas Day," and "Deck the Halls;" poems, "Welcome,' by Patsy McKenna, "Christmas Tree," by Kyoko Oshima, and "Isn't It Queer?" by Irene Thieme; play, "Darning the Christmas Stocking," by Jack Pierce and Robert Patterson; poems, "Santa Claus," by Doralee Kesner; "Envy," by Adolph Alloro; "The Best Day," by Terry Cawman, and "What We Can Give," by Everett Scott.

Next came violin selections, "O Come All Ye Faithful," and "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," by Nancy Duncan, Jacklyn Palm, Kiyoko Kasai and Roberta Southward.

Followed poems by Billy Carney, Kiyoko Kasai, Dolores Blue and Billy Clarke, and a play, "The Christmas Box from Aunt Jane," in which Jacklyn Palm, Jack Dalton, Bobby Carney, Doris Bingnall and Robert Bush took part.

Poems by Elaine Stein, Gordon Day, Mary Lou Kennedy and Earl Masterson continued the program. Shirley Welton, Betty Lou Rowe, Phyllis Clarke, David Blue, George Christ, Eugene Serveau and Richard Bielenburg took part in the play, "Grandpa's Christmas Surprise."

Completing the entertainment were poems by Dorothy Karns, Marjorie Bingnall, Frank Hunt and Phyllis Clarke, and two selections by the sixth grade glee club "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Silent Night."

Greetings Extended Of County Personnel

On behalf of all officials, County Manager Walter T. Kellogg today extended best Christmas wishes to residents of San Mateo county.

"At this time of the year," Kellogg said in a statement released to the press, "our thoughts turn to home and fireside, and in keeping with the spirit of the holiday season, I offer, on behalf of all county officials, cordial good wishes for a most happy Christmas and the holidays, and hope that everyone will find a full measure of contentment in the year to come."

Plan Now to Do More Electrically!

THE REDUCED ELECTRIC RATES bring to you a Bargain Value in Electric Service. It means you can have better lighting. You can have more electric servants to help you with housework every day. Electricity more than ever is the Biggest Bargain in the Home. Take full advantage of it.

Here's How Cheaply Certain Electrical Servants Work Under the New Low-Cost Electricity:

- If your electric bill has been $2.09 or less per month . . . you can use an electric dishwasher 90 times a month for 13¢, run a washing machine for 11¢ a month, use a vacuum cleaner for 8.3¢ a month.
- Add any one of these electric appliances. Operate it on the savings from the reduced rates. If your electric bill is $2.10 or more your savings are even greater.
- The above figures are based on an estimated average cost for electricity in all incorporated areas. In unincorporated areas the cost is slightly higher.

"Lower the cost of electricity and we will use more electricity." If you have been one of our customers who has said this, now you can put additional electrical servants to work in your home at no additional cost or only slight increase in cost. Electricity right after your December meter reading will be cheaper than ever before.

With the new reduced rates, the unit cost of electricity steps down sharply as you add certain essential and labor-saving electrical servants. An electric refrigerator is one of these. A washing machine and ironer or a vacuum cleaner, electric heater or larger floor and table lamps that give better light for better sight. Any or all of these electric servants would make ideal gifts this Christmas. You can add certain of these appliances without increasing your monthly bill and you can add all of them with only a slight increase in your bill.

You will find special Christmas displays of electric appliances in stores everywhere and in all our offices. See them. Ask to have them demonstrated. Make THIS an electrical Christmas in your home.

. . . and ALWAYS FINDS SOMEBODY HOME

It's putting it mild to say that The Tribune is a welcome salesman. If it ever fails to show up at a front door our circulation department gets a nasty phone call. Yet The Tribune doesn't try, ahead of everything else, to be a salesman. Its main purpose in life is to inform and entertain, as any well-written, well-edited newspaper should do. Meeting its readers on their own terms, it lets them sell themselves—the secret of good salesmanship the world over.

That's why The Tribune is one "business visitor" that's accepted socially by most any family when it is in a social mood. It interviews each buying member of the household when the sales-resistance bars are down. It is accepted by them all as an old family friend. Which isn't hard to understand. For The Tribune bears the stamp of reliability. Readers depend on it—from Mother with her recipe-problems down to Junior who mixes sports with his comics.

It is believed.

And it will sell more merchandise for you for that reason alone.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE

No. 6932. Dept. 2.

THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN MATEO.

In the matter of the Estate of WILLIAM J. DUSEL, also known as WILLIAM JOHN DUSEL, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned Executrix of the last Will and Testament of WILLIAM J. DUSEL, alias known, deceased, will sell at private sale, to the highest bidder, for cash, and subject to confirmation by said Superior Court, on Saturday, the 4th day of January, 1936, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., or after said hour, at the entrance of the Court House of the County of San Mateo, situate in Redwood City, State of California, all the right, title, interest and estate of the said WILLIAM J. DUSEL, alias known, deceased, at the time of his death, and all the right, title and interest that the said estate has, by operation of law, or otherwise, acquired other than, or in addition to, that of the said WILLIAM J. DUSEL, alias known, deceased, at the time of his death, in and to those certain parcels of land particularly described as follows, to wit:

Those certain parcels of land in the City of Redwood City, County of San Mateo, State of California, to-wit:

PARCEL I

MENLO PARK ITEMS

The annual children's Christmas party given by the Douglas family was held at the fire house this year instead of at the Douglas estate. Ceremonies opened with the singing of "Silent Night" by a group of 25 Girl Scouts led by Isabelle Weeden Lindquist. Fire Chief Cuff released some doves as a memorial tribute to the late Mrs. Wm. J. McNabb (Ena Douglas), who passed away last month, and he explained the tribute to the children. Fire Commissioner James Howell also addressed the gathering. Santa Claus (Elmo Corneilson) then distributed the presents. The Douglas family is on a lengthy world tour.

Menlo Park Pair's Hearing Set Monday

(Special to The Tribune)

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Dec. 25. — Preliminary hearing of John Tibbs, 24, and Joe Walker, 32, both of Menlo Park, on charges of breaking and destroying jail property was set for next Monday afternoon when the pair were arraigned yesterday before Police Judge J. M. Atkinson.

Arrested originally for drunken driving, the more serious charge was filed as the result of their attempting to escape from the local jail early Sunday.

Boy Violin Genius To Appear in S. F.

Young Felix Abcede, boy violinist who recently created a sensation in Los Angeles, will appear early in January in San Francisco, by arrangement of Peter Conley. The boy, billed as a 9-year-old genius, was born 11 years ago in Community Hospital of Filipino parents who were employed in San Mateo at the time as domestics.

DIED IN POVERTY, BUT—

(Special to The Tribune)

DALY CITY, Dec. 23—Thomas S. Smith, who died here in apparent poverty, was disclosed today to have had an estate of "something under $10,000" when Mrs. Emily H. Dittmeyer of this city brought suit in San Francisco for $3325 wages and $2000 assertedly advanced by her to Thomas during his life.

PLATE PROCEDURE TOLD BY INGELS

Licenses Available At Local Office After Jan. 2

Motorists of San Mateo county, in common with more than 2,000,000 automobile owners of California, face an entirely new procedure beginning January 2, 1936, when they register or re-register their vehicles for the new year.

Recognizing this fact, The Tribune has asked department of motor vehicles to simplify the procedure for citizens of this district by answering several pertinent questions. This newspaper's questions and the answers of Ray Ingels, director of motor vehicles, follow:

Question: What fees are due when registering or re-registering an automobile in 1936?

Answer: Two fees are due. (1) Registration fee of $3, which pays for number plates. (2) Vehicle license fee, which is to be paid in lieu of personal property tax formerly paid on automobiles to accessors.

Question: How is the vehicle license fee charged?

Answer: At the rate of $1.75 for each $100 valuation of the automobile, values having been determined by department of motor vehicles.

Question: How will automobile owners be made aware of fees due?

Answer: Postal assessment cards have been prepared in Sacramento and mailed to individual registered owners.

Question: If a postal assessment is lost how can an owner determine fees to be paid?

Answer: Department of motor vehicles offices, California Highway Patrol offices and offices of authorized automobile clubs will be able to furnish this information after January 1. However, it must be remembered that the postal card will save much delay and inconvenience in obtaining registration number plates. If you have the postal card be sure to present it.

Question: What papers must be presented when registering or re-registering an automobile?

Answer: (a) White (resident) or blue (non-resident) registration card bearing assessor's stamp to show city and county taxes paid for 1935.

(b) Postal assessment card, showing fees to be paid.

(c) Cash, money order or certified check to cover fees as shown on postal assessment card.

Question: Where can registration or re-registration be obtained?

Answer: In person at (a) any state motor vehicle office, (b) at any California Highway Patrol office, and (c) at any authorized automobile club.

Question: Can registration or re-registration be obtained by mail?

Answer: Yes, by sending required papers to department of motor vehicles, division of registration, 11th and P streets, Sacramento, Calif., accompanied by the proper fees.

Question: Must the vehicle license fee be paid at the same time the automobile is registered or re-registered?

Answer: Yes, registration number plates cannot be issued until vehicle license fees are paid.

Question: When must vehicle license fees be paid?

Answer: Beginning January 2 and prior to midnight January 30.

Question: Is a penalty assessed on vehicle license fees after midnight January 30?

Answer: Yes. A penalty of 100 per cent is added and the vehicle can be confiscated and sold for fees due the state.

Question: Are war veterans exempt from payment of the vehicle license fee?

Answer: Yes, provided they do not own property amounting to $5,000 or more they are entitled to exemption up to $1,000. Veterans, however, must pay the usual $3 registration fee.

Question: How will veterans obtain exemption?

Answer: By presenting their honorable discharges to a department of motor vehicles office, California Highway Patrol office or authorized automobile club and filing an affidavit prepared by the department. Claim for exemption will be filed when applying for registration or re-registration.

Question: Will there be a published record of vehicle values as determined by department of motor vehicles?

Answer: Yes Department of motor vehicles has prepared its own book of values, showing fees for all automobiles, and copies can be obtained from the supervisor of documents, Sacramento, at 75 cents a copy

Retired Plumber Rites to Be Held Here on Monday

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Layng & Tinney Funeral Home for William L. Bridgewater, 72, who died Monday afternoon at his home at 727 Fulton street.

A plumber by trade, Mr. Bridgewater had been retired for the past five years. He had lived here since 1923. He was a native of Missouri.

Mourning his passing are his wife, Mrs. Artiemesia Bridgewater; a step-son, H. E. Giberson of Rio Vista; a step-mother, Mrs. Emily Bridgewater of Watsonville; and two brothers, Edgar of Sacramento and Harry of Watsonville.

Another brother, James H. Bridgewater, died early this month in South San Francisco.

The funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. J. E. Marozik, pastor of Redeemer Lutheran Church. Interment will follow in Alta Mesa Memorial Park.

WPA OFFICER SEES CHANCE OF PROJECTS

Says Mills Field Job Will Not Supplant County Funds

Additional encouragement that the $730,841 worth of WPA projects submitted in the past month and a half by San Mateo county would be approved in Washington despite the huge project at Mills Field was given late Monday in a letter from L. M. Canaday, state director, division of projects and planning, Works Progress Administration.

In his letter to the supervisors, Canady said that "allotments of federal funds made to the Mills Field project will in no way mitigate against the operation of the San Mateo county program."

Canaday referred to the recent visit of Supervisor Albert Witt, Engineer U. S. Marshall and Deputy W. W. Hendricks, made in an effort to speed approval of projects.

"I believe a clearer understanding of necessary procedure has been developed," he said. "Please be assured that San Mateo county projects developed to absorb employables in the vicinity will be given preference and at no time will workers be required to provide excessive transportation to a particular project, including Mills Field."

"Deep Dark River," Robert Rylee's highly successful novel, was accepted by the first publisher who read it. It was also the first novel he had tried to sell.

Memorial Park Job To Begin January 6

With allotment of funds received, work will commence on the Memorial Park WPA project January 6, it was announced today by Frank McLaughlin, state administrator, through Congressmen John J. McGrath.

Unattached single men having legal residence in San Mateo and Santa Clara counties will be used insofar as available, to man the camp. Approximately $90,000 worth of federal funds, under the sponsorship of the National Park Service, will be employed to build fire trails, ranger stations, and foot trails and otherwise better San Mateo county's fire-fighting facilities.
